A great resource of IDEAS for chambers of commerce and chamber Staff

Chamber101 the Leading Resource for Chambers

Think of Chamber101 as a reference book sitting on your desk. Chamber101 is always available for easy reference, and has every aspect of chamber of commerce programs. There are over 25,000 pages of the best examples and samples for you to view and you will not find such an array anywhere else. If you use it on a regular basis your work will be smoother and more pleasant. It is a great time-saving tool.

Chamber101 is the Leading Resource on the Web for Chambers of Commerce everywhere.

We hope the exchange of ideas between chambers on organization, structure and operations will help you promote, advertise, get advice and new ideas, new twists on old ideas, or just general information on making your chamber work better for you. We're interested in what you are doing ... and so are other chambers of commerce.

I don't have to tell you what member's dues mean to any organization. It keeps the doors open and helps the organization grow. You can't afford NOT to be a member!

We invite you to browse our site and learn more about the chamber101 and the chamber of commerce community. This is to encourage your chamber to become a member of chamber101.

NOTE:

Chamber101.com announced a major change in policy (June 29/12):

1. We are dropping the requirement to submit data with membership.
2. Any Chamber that joins between now and July 31 will have a Renewal Date of July 31, 2013 for $100 per year.
3. Come August 2012, membership will increase to $120 per year.
4. Any Chamber that is a member as of July 31, 2012, will have their membership dues stabilized at $100 for the next three years.
